

Unit 2 In-class Lexicals: Life (2)

Questions

good: [Offer your AKL book to your classmate:] Here, use this for your business management test.

over: What do some people do after they pay for their food at the supermarket?

far: Do you speak English like a native speaker?

adj -est ever: What do you think of my nose?

come: When you take a test, what do you have to do?

might: Do you care if I have a beer tonight?

start: Hak-su hasn't come to class yet. Shall we wait for him?

ahead: Are you sure you don't want to wait for him?

first: Friend, why did you get a zero on the last quiz?

time: If I am still sleeping when class ends, what will you tell me?

touch: Why are mobile phones so useful?

set (for/to): X, are you ready for a lexicals quiz right now?

far: My dear friend, up till now, how long have you studied English?

might: Shall I wear my blue jacket tomorrow?

might: Shall I give you 1 million won?

stay/keep in touch: Will I ever see you again after this course is over?

might: I saw you going into the Family Mart this morning. Why?

set (on/for): When did our teacher decide the day of the mid-term exam? What day are we taking it? (Answer both questions in one sentence.)

Possible Replies

good: Get serious. An English text book won't be much good to me if I'm taking a business management test.

over: They go over the receipt to make sure everything is all right.

far: Not so far.

adj -est ever: I think it's the cutest thing I've ever seen in my life.

come: You have to come up with the right answers.

might: No. You might as well have one.

start: No, let's get started.

ahead: Yes, I'm absolutely sure. Let's go ahead without him.

first: Well, first of all, I didn't do my homework.

time: I'll tell you that it's time for you to wake up and wipe the dribble off your chin.

touch: They allow us to get in touch whenever and wherever we want.

set (for/to): Absolutely. I'm all set for it. / I'm all set to take it.

far: Let's see... I guess I've studied English 9 years so far.

might: You might as well.

might: Oh, yes! Thank you! (If you say "you might as well," it means that you don't really care.)

stay/keep in touch: Of course. Let's stay/keep in touch.

might: I was passing by and thought I might as well stop in to talk with the cute clerk that works there.

set (on/for): He set it up on March 1 for April 27.